

General guideline for job submission to CGF

1. We accept and process samples in either 96- or 384-well plate format.
2. Before you bring your samples to CGF, submit your sample information into our database via the CGF web page (<http://cgf.ucdavis.edu>).
3. You need to have an account in our system to submit samples to CGF.
4. If you are a new user or PI, register yourself as a new user or PI in our web page. See the 'New user or PI' section of our FAQ page.
5. Once registration is done, you'll be able to login as a user or a PI.
6. After login as a user, choose your sample category to enter information about your samples.
7. You will be asked a series of questions regarding your samples such as job name, number of samples, format of your plates (96/384), etc.
